Discussion on John Willett's Presentation on Type in Practice at the WA Talking Type September Meeting

John presented an overview of how he uses type in the area of human resource management whilst emphasising the importance of understanding self and others for building effective interpersonal relationships either at work or in personal relationships.

Come along prepared to present and discuss 2 key learning's / queries / "wow" moments that resonated with you and for reflection on the question ..."is understanding self the foundation for effective interpersonal relationships?"

This meeting will be of interest whether or not you attended the September meeting. Look forward to seeing you there.

$5.00 charge to cover cost of meeting attendance
