Discussion on Jon Doust's Book

"Boy on a Wire"

Boy on a Wire a sort of "dislocated memoir" based on Jon's life in a private Perth (West Australia) boarding school in the early 1960s.

Sent to boarding school at a young age, Jack Muir decides he's a survivor. He gets by with a quick wit and a fast mouth. Others aren't so lucky.

This story from stand-up comedian and writer, Jon Doust, is humorous and deeply poignant—a close-to-the-bone tale of how underdogs survive the system. (Freemantle Press)

Read the book and reflect on:

- Who are the main characters? What personality type do they demonstrate?
- What are some of their behaviours that lead you to believe this?

We are delighted to announce that Jon Doust, the author, will join us at our February meeting on 18 February 2010 to discuss how type is played out in his book.

$5.00 charge to cover cost of meeting attendance
