

Practical Application of Tools

1.5 hour
teleconference

Ingrid

Ingrid manages her own consultancy Company, Self Talking, enhancing the effectiveness of people through communication and self discovery.

Over 15 years she has facilitated learning in unique, remote and secluded environments. This has offered her the opportunity to work with research bodies, some of the largest mining companies, off shore with oil and gas companies, farming communities, Government Sectors, in all of their ever changing environments. With a background in both Sociology and Psychology, she has extensive application knowledge of a variety of personality type and other tools.

Saturday 4 April 2009

- Western Australia 8:00am
- Northern Territory 9:30am
- Queensland 10.00am
- South Australia 10.30am
- New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania 11.00am
- New Zealand 1:00pm

Are you getting full use of your knowledge in personality type and other tools?

A teleconference which looks at application of relevant AusAPT/ NZAPT personality type tools in a range of frameworks and workplace contexts.

Free standing practical use and integration with other tools will be explored as used explicitly and implicitly with yourself and your clients.

Ingrid will facilitate hearing of practical case studies to explore successes, hear practical applications and consider potential uses of personality type tools.

Rather than selecting between tools, how might you use and integrate a variety of tools as appropriate in a number of diverse situations and environments?
